

HOMER, to whom .	I was a King of sweet ..	Nor did He first a .. x60
23	617	Nor hath He given
How can I live m	I wish no rich refined . .	181
384	367	Nor He, m this, doth ...
How can that . .	Jove for EUROPA'S love	168
592	377	Nor in the secret
How can we hope	Kill not her Quick'ning	160
143	201	Nor is it strange that ...
* How can we say . . .	Lame Consonants ... 368	167
161	Lastly, GOD, being . 163	Nor may a man, of . 159
* Uffw doth Confusion's	Lastly. Nine things ...	" Not Adam's Body ...
31	172	168
How have I forfeited ...	Lastly, the brute 169	Nymphs shall resort ! . .
73	Lastly, the Feeling .	451
How justly then zs	174	Nymphs, which in
28	Lastly, the Soul were .	372
How made I, then	168	O Beauty ' Siren ! kept
70	" Lastly > where keep .	620
How many golden	35	O could I, sweet 55
80	LAYA, soon sounding .	O could we see ' how ...
How often hath my pen	341	165
75	" Learn then to dance !	O dart and thunder ! ...
How often have mine ...	38	365
71	Let every man drink ...	O dear remembrance ...
How oft have I, the ...	445	425
466	Let me the -mover be ..	O dear vexation of my
How senseless then	26	430
182	Let not Disdain, thy .., 78	O fair sweet glove ' 449
How shall I deck my ...	Love must free hearted	" Of all their ways . 36
73	168	Of Him, She thinks .
How then succeedeth . .	Love still has something	186
349	Lulled in a heavenly ...	O Fiery Rage ! when ..
How wert thou pleased	65	389
70	MARY, my Saint chaste	Oft have m me Eyes ...
I burn, yet am I cold I . .	447	594
356	Methought, CALLIOPE. .	Of this, we find some
I dare not spealc of that	369	166
405	Might not this be for ...	Of which swift little . .
If all the Loves were ...	345	183
378	Mine eye bewrays the. .	O how long! how long
If any think a virgin ...	613	435
462	Mine Eyes and Sleep be	O how oft I how oft did
If by His word, He had	435	466
168	Mistress I Behold ... 339	O if my heavenly sighs
If by the Body 'how ...	More fair, but yet . .	597
163	68	O ignorant poor Man !
If CUPID keep his quiver	Most true that I must .	201
379	622	O Kingly Jealousy I ...
If Death do quench us	Much like a subtle . . 175	386
199	"Murder I O murder I"	O let me sigh, weep .
If great Apollo offered . .	615	621
618	Musicians think our ...	O let my heai t, my body
If him thou take ..	148	600
439	Must then, your 15	O LIGHT ' (which . .
If, lastly, Souls did	My verses do not please	48
163	441 My woes, all	O lovely tender paps I ..
If, lastly, this quick ...	comforts... 459 Nature]	465
159	find, doth ... 81	O LOVE ! my King ! ..
If neither Love, nor Pity	Ne'er from a lofty pitch	52
428	79	O Love's soft hills I . .
If ought can teach us ..	Ne'er were the silvery .	465
146	72	O many> many years .
* If Sense hath not yet	Neither MINERVA, nor	140
31	146	Once in an harbour was
If She doth then the ...	"Next her, the pure ...	347
156	33	One night, I did attend
If She, the Body's	Next, in the nostrils ...	459
156	174	O what a 'fively life' ...
If She were but the	Next, when my sun 358	*8x
156	Next, when the ... 357	O what is Man!
If She were but the	None that acknowledge	181
156	199	O why loved I I For ...
If th'Elements (which...)	No ! no, ZEPHERIA ! . 74	363
156	Nor as a vessel, water...	O why should Envy ...
If then, all souls, both .	170	395
188	Nor can herself. 151	PALLAS, that hour ... 25
If then a man, on light	Nor can her wide ... 138	PARTHENOPHK mine ...
167	Nor could the world's ...	441
If then, by death, the		